

Phebe Galloway per Trustees, to Solomon More.

This Indenture made this nineteenth day of February, A.D. 1831. between Elias Randall, Levi Kerr and Russell Hawkins Trustees of the township of Mentor in the County of Geauga and State of Ohio, with the consent and approbation of Warren Corning Jr. one of the justices of the Peace in and for the aforesaid township of the one part, and Solomon More, of the township of Chagrin, in the County of Cuyahoga and State aforesaid of the other part Witnesseth that the said Trustees have and by these presents do with the consent and approbation of said justice of the Peace, place and bind out Phebe Galloway a poor girl, aged six years, eleven months & 9 days (daughter of Daniel B. Galloway & Mahitable Galloway, of Mentor township aforesaid who are unable to support their child) as a servant to the said Solomon More, to live with and serve him for the term of eleven years — months, nine days from the date of these presents, that is to say until she the said servant shall arrive to the age of eighteen years, which the said Trustees are informed and believe will happen on the first day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and forty two, — if the said Phebe Galloway so long lives; and the said trustees do by these presents give unto him the said Solomon More, authority, power and rights, to and over the said Phebe Galloway and her service during said term, which by the laws of this State a Master hath to, and over a lawful indented servant. —

And the said Solomon More on his part, in consideration thereof, doth promise, covenant and agree to and with the said trustees, and each of them, their and each of their successors in office for the time being, and with the poor girl, each by himself and herself respectively to teach and instruct her the said servant, or cause her to be taught and instructed to read, write and cypher so far as to include the single rule of three; and also to train her to the habits of obedience, industry and morality, and provide for and allow to her meat, drink, washing, lodging and wearing apparel for summer and winter; and all other necessaries proper for such servant during the time of her service as aforesaid; and at the expiration thereof shall give to the said servant a new bible and at least two suits of common wearing apparel. In witness whereof the said parties have hereunto set their hands and seals the day and year first above written.
